Own your Own Sanctuary!

Are you looking for a lifestyle with an income attached? If so look no further than this beautiful property on 10.44 HA (approx 26 acres) on three titles.

The home of Mayjoie Haven boarding Kennels & Cattery. This business is now fully operational, and since the COVID-19 pandemic there has been a stronger demand for care as pet ownership is on the increase.

The property has two functional and comfortable houses. The main house contains an office and dog breeding room which is located at the front of the home for your convenience. The timber kitchen is spacious and allows plenty of room for the family and the bathroom is modern and contains a spa bath to relax at the end of a hard days work. Three bedrooms and a generous lounge room just complete this great package. Externally there's a double carport and a pergola area along with plenty of designated customer parking available.

The other home would be ideal for a caretaker or family member, or to lease out for extra income. The house has two bedrooms and a cosy lounge room and a split system to control the climate. A veranda and carport are available for your convenience.

This versatile property would also suit the horse enthusiast as its well equipped for horses with electric fencing and a sand arena, along with an amazing stable complex and a round yard. Plenty of shedding which could be used for storage or a workshop or utilised for horse tack or feed
