Walking Distance To Hospitals

This charming brick home, located close to both hospitals, offers spacious and comfortable living with four bedrooms, three featuring built in robes and all fitted with ceiling fans, with the master also complete with an ensuite. A large entry and dining area leads to an expansive L-shaped lounge, complemented by evaporative cooling and ducted gas heating for year round comfort. The modern kitchen impresses with a large stone benchtop, dishwasher, 5 burner gas cooktop and pantry, while the generous laundry includes a built in robe and outdoor access. The main bathroom provides a shower, bath and single vanity. Outside, there is ample room for multiple cars to be parked on the property, along with a versatile double garage that can also function as a shed, making this home an ideal choice for families.
