11 Dean Drive, Kialla

Country Retreat

This delightful home is just the place to enjoy an active country lifestyle with the convenience of schools and town facilities within a short drive. Enjoy bushland views right on your doorstep.

Endless features include three bedrooms, generous lounge room with a bar and a centrally located bathroom. The kitchen is neat and functional and was designed with a chef in mind to include a large walk in pantry.

Externally a carport and lots of off street parking provide many options for vehicles. Expansive shedding on this property is suitable as a tradesperson workshop or for storage requirements. The established lush gardens are taken care of through stock and domestic water allocation, with tank water to service the house.

This high quality workmanship in this home has stood the test of time and is situated on a 2,225m² (approx.) block which allows plenty of room to enjoy the country retreat. Suitable for families, first home buyers, investors or tradespeople.
